

Presents:

Seen Any Good Movies?

Days: Mondays 4/4, 4/11, 4/18, 4/25, 5/2, 5/9

Time: 11:00-12:15 PM

Instructor: Robin Brancato

This class will meet six times in order to discuss one film each week. These will be feature films, past or present, that will be accessible on Netflix, Amazon, other cable channels, or as DVDs from the library. You'll watch them on your own, prior to class, and we'll share our reactions and insights.

Film titles will be selected on the basis of how well they lead to good discussion and how well they have endured, or are likely to endure. They will also be diverse in subject matter and style.

Robin Brancato, a former longtime resident of Teaneck, is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania and The City University of New York. She taught English, Creative Writing, and Journalism at Hackensack High School, Teaneck High School, and Kean University. She currently teaches courses in film and short stories at the Learning Collaborative in Rockland County, NY. Robin has also written eight novels and two works of nonfiction for Young Adults, published by Alfred A Knopf and Scarecrow Press.
